

Hint

Receiving money as income is receiving money for doing work or for selling items.

Receiving money as a gift is receiving money that is not earned and doesn't have to be paid back.