

A fractional unit is the unit of the fraction. It names the equal parts of a whole or one.

For example, two red trapezoids can be placed over one of the hexagons so if a hexagon is a whole, then a trapezoid is one-half or  $\frac{1}{2}$  of a hexagon.

