Hint

- Look at the first number line. The numbers are changing by 100 each time. What place value will you look at in the number 3,408 to determine where to place it on the number line?

- How are the numbers changing on the second number line? Will you use the same place value that you used for the first number line?