

Interest is the amount of money received for saving money in a bank account or the amount of money paid for borrowing money or making purchases on credit.