

Perimeter is the distance around a two dimensional shape, the measurement of the distance around something, or the length of the boundary.