

Possible Solutions

A credit report contains both positive and/or negative history. Each of the listed items in the question is contained on a report, as well as other information such as:

- Tax liens
- Foreclosures
- Loans and their repayment status
- On-time payments
- Late payments
- Available credit on accounts

Therefore, the correct answer is D as all of the answer choices are retained in a credit report.