

Hint

Remember the higher the temperature, the warmer it is, and the lower the temperature, the colder it is.

Try using a vertical number line because it directly relates to a thermometer which is a real-life version of a vertical number line.

With negative numbers, the larger the number, the colder the temperature and the smaller the number, the warmer it is.