Hint

- Try setting up a proportional statement that shows the relationship between the height and shadow of each building.