Hint

The student must use proportional reasoning of part-to-whole to calculate the percentage of each category. The "part" is given in the graph for each bar. All of the bars must be added together to get a total for the "whole".