

An investor is someone who buys or puts money into a stock or company in hopes that it will generate income or one day be worth more than you bought it for.