

A Venn diagram is a visual representation that shows similarities and differences among categories. For example, the A and B circles are differences for each category, while the red overlap demonstrates similarities between A and B.

