

A constant is a fixed value. A constant is a number on its own, or sometimes a letter such as a , b , or c will represent a fixed number. For example, in the equation, $x + 5 = 9$, 5 and 9 are constants.